TURN YOUR BATHROOM INTO AN AT-HOME SPA

Whether you are remodeling or building a new home, a custom tile shower can be a luxurious addition to any bathroom. Some great spa style additions to any shower are steam generators and body sprays.

- ◆ With the Steamist steam bath, you can have that dream come true and in your very own home. Having your own personal steam bath can help you sleep better and work better. Overall, you'll feel better. Steamist steam baths also contribute to a brighter, healthier outlook, increase blood circulation, metabolism and provides a haven from mental and physical stress. Their compact steam generator hides quietly in the vanity, closet or even an insulated attic or basement. Their low voltage controls are safe and easy to operate, and the system is virtually maintenance free.

- ◆ Body sprays will increase the relaxation level in your shower. When designing a walk-in style shower, body sprays can help combat the draft of not having a shower door. Even with a shower door, fans of hot showers will love having that much more water covering their bodies.

Strategically placed sprays can also be used to relax sore muscles. Some of the most common placements are between the shoulder blades, on the lower back or on the legs. The body sprays do adjust to help accommodate multiple users of various heights and come in multiple styles to compliment many shower faucets.
